

The telephone into our homes is paid for by us. We should have the right to choose who we want to talk to. before I went on the do not call list, I was recieving hundreds of unwanted calls. Even gettin an unlisted number did not work. That is a huge invasion of privacy.